Coach Sullivan gave the squad a long drill in the general routine of early training work, while he took special interest in the booting ability of Pepper, the former Western High School player, who was sending long spirals in this part of the drill. Work will be continued again today on the grounds at Seventeenth and B streets northwest.

Fred Pearson's crack eleven of cricketers from Darby. Pa., will run wickets with the Washington Cricket Club players tomorrow, game at 2:30 p. m., and this will be the real test of the strength of the leaders in the intercity matches.

Captain Cannon feels confident that his well-trained huskies will give a good account of themselves in the combat, but admits that they will have a hard nut to crack, as the "Griswolds" have "cleaned up" in most games played in the Eastern autumn trip.

In view of the fine eleven which the Brooklanders turned out last year and the prospects for the coming season with practically all of the veterans back, it was thought that fully iwenty players would report for the work-out yesterday, but the dope went astray and from the present indication football at the Brookland institution is at a standstill.

Ten candidates reported to Coach Paul White at Business High School yesterday. Sults were given out to the candidates and Coach White held a long session in going over the rules with the squad. Actual practice will start on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The following players reported yester-day: Captain "Buck" Wise, Towles R

TWO PLAYERS FOR NATIONALS BY DRAFT

Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 15 .- The Washington American League club received two players in the drafting of minor league players today. The Washington club has choice of the Rochester and St. Pau teams, but has not yet decided on the players it will take.

College Park, Md., Sept. 15.—The first real football practice of the year at the Maryland State College was held today, nineteen men reporting for what proved to be a rather strenuous work-out. The members of last season's squad are fast coming out, more being on the field this afternoon than were expected. By the middle of next week.

CARDINALS CLOSE THE SEASON ON SUNDAY

Alexandria, Va., Sept. 15.-The Cardinal A. C. will close its season Sunday with Fort Hunt as its opponents. This game should be one for blood, as the Soldier Boys are among the three clubs which have scored a victory over the Cardinals. This season has been one of the best ever experienced by the local club, win-ning twenty-two games and losing six, for a percentage of .786.

Much credit is due the following players for the excellent showing made this season: O'Donnell, Brewer, Owens, Deg-nan, Purdy, Devers, Merchant, Albaugh, Conover, McBride, Allensworth, Snowden, Giovennetti, Sweeney, and Dampier,
